Legacy of Truth

God blessed the Legacy of Truth fundraiser dinner in a mighty way, in a way only He can do. Over 140 people attended the dinner as God allowed the financial goal to be exceeded that evening. Sarah Sleet with First Church emceed the event. Keynote speaker, Mark Whitacre of the Christian Corporation, Coca Cola Consolidated, shared about his life. The movie, The Informant, was based on part of his life. Mark said, "if he had a CEF® club to attend as a child, his life may have gone in a much different direction". Thanks to Gordon Hayworth who shared a short testimony about how he was saved at the age of nine at a Good News Club.

Grant County Autumn Fest

Nearly 60 children (and their parents) heard about the only true way to a life with Jesus at the Grant County Autumn Fest. Children prayed to receive and believe in Jesus; others were reassured of their salvation. Thanks to all the volunteers who met the spiritual needs of some of our children in the community.

Ministry Coordinator

Praise God for the new Ministry Coordinator, Victoria Warren, who started with CEF in March this year. Victoria Warren will oversee all aspects of the Good News Club: Volunteer applications, supplies for clubs, online student registrations, and substituting for workers as needed! God has prepared Victoria for such a time as this. Victoria's contact info: victoria.cefnky@gmail.com and 859-308-3730

Local CYIA Missionary Reports:

"I have had the amazing opportunity to help with 5-Day Clubs, summer party clubs, and the Grant County Autumn Fair, where I had the chance to present the Gospel through the Wordless Book. In all these experiences, I have learned so much and have grown greatly in my walk with Christ. CEF is an amazing ministry, not just because it equips you to share the Gospel with those who need to hear it, but because it also helps you to grow spiritually and know Christ better". Faith Krogstad, Cornerstone Baptist Church
