Legacy of Truth

God blessed the Legacy of Truth fundraiser dinner! Ken Ham and John Luck stressed the need for children need to hear truths about God in this broken world. The event was the largest attended by more than 180 attendees. Praise God!

The Creation Museum caterers prepared an outstanding meal. TrueSong closed the evening with worship music. Thanks to all our donors and volunteers who made this event happen. Especially thanks for the dozens of hours from the Finance Committee: Rodney Collins, Tammy Collins, Jay Knochel, Bekah Mixer and Donna Dudar.

John Luck, CEF VP Global Partnerships shared about the importance of bringing children from darkness into the Light of Jesus.

Psalm 127:3 (NIV)
Children are a heritage from the Lord, offspring a reward from him."

Faith and Autumn Fests

Over 100 kids (and their parents) heard about the only true way to a life with Jesus at the Grant County Autumn Fest and AJ Jolly Faith Fest. Children prayed to receive and believe in Jesus. Others were reassured of their salvation. Thanks to all the volunteers who showed up to meet the spiritual needs of children in the community.

CYIA students and committee members Jacob Cardwell and Hadassah Krogstad fill goody bags before sharing the Gospel with children while making Wordless Book keychains at the Faith Fest at AJ Jolly Park.

The Good News Buzz

Over 115 volunteers are busy sharing the Good News of Jesus at Good News Clubs in different schools around the region. We thank God for all our volunteers. CEF® would not be what it is without great teachers and helpers.

Please pray for our Good News Club leaders and workers in each school/location, and their sponsoring churches:

Cartmell Elementary
Crittenden – Mt. Zion Elementary
Dry Ridge Elementary
Gallatin Upper Elementary
God's Gifts and Talents Homeschool Group
Goodridge Elementary
Kathryn Winn Primary
Kelly Elementary (at Belleview Baptist Church)
Northern Older and Northern Younger
Piner Elementary (at Piner Baptist Church)
Sharp Middle School
Sherman Elementary
Southern Older and Southern Younger
Walton-Verona Elementary (resumes in Jan.)

Since the Fall semester started there have been 14 students who have accepted the Lord Jesus as their Savior! AMEN!! There are also many prayers from children simply asking for healing in their families, for family members who are still lost, and praying for 'my parents to stop fighting'.

"A question was asked from a student before club got started. 'Can a murderer go to heaven?' This went right along with the day's Lesson! The Bible Lesson was about the Apostle Paul getting SAVED on the road to Damascus. The Lord has His hand ALL over these school ministries, Glory to God!!!"

The Lasting Impact of Christian Youth In Action!

Pastor Mike Wright's Story: Finding Assurance in God's Word

Mike had recently come to know the Lord as a teenager and was called by God to preach; however, he was struggling with eternal security. A church worker took the time to sit with him, encouraging him to memorize 100 Bible verses. Mike took that to heart. Giving him spiritual security within God's Word, he could do what God was calling him to do – share the Gospel.

The foundation for a lifetime of ministry often begins with someone willing to invest in a young believer. Before Mike ever attended CYIA, someone took the time to help him grow in his understanding of God's Word.

Some of our CYIA students are new believers and learn the full Gospel. Other students find their assurance in Christ. Many know they are a child of God and can finally do what God is calling them to do. But all of them need the foundational truths found in God's Word.

Are you ready to obey His calling?

Do you know the foundational Truths of the Gospel? Do you want to be a missionary and learn how to share the Gospel? If you have a heart for ministry, in Summer 2027 you can:

- Reach boys and girls with the Gospel
- See your faith and vision grow deeper in Christ
- Build new friendships that will last a lifetime
- Grow in communication, teamwork, endurance, responsibility, and self-confidence
- Gain experience for ministry in your own local church, school or vocation
